SAYS NATIONS' CO-OPERATION WILL BROADEN AS YEARS PASS

President Wilson, in Address at Banquet to Peace Delegates, Predicts Benefits to Flow From Paris Conference.

PARIS, June 26 (By the Associated Press).—President Wilson tonight gave a dinner to President Wilson and all the delegates to the peace conference. Mrs. Wilson accompanied the President.

Responding to an address made by M. Poincaré, President Wilson said: "I thank you most sincerely for the words that you have uttered. For cannot pretend, sir, that the prospect of going home is not very delightful to me, but I can say with the greatest sincerity that the prospect of leaving France is very painful to me."

"I have received a peculiarly generous welcome here, and it has been pleasing for me to feel that that welcome was intended not so much for myself as for the people whom I represented. And the people of France know how to give a welcome that makes a man's heart glad. They have a spontaneity about them, a simplicity of friendship, which is altogether delightful."

Notes Sacrifice Made by France.

"I feel that my stay here, sir, has enlightened both my heart and my mind. It has enabled me personally to see the evidence of the suffering and the sacrifices of France. It has enabled me to come into personal touch with the leaders of the French people, and through the medium of intercourse with them to understand better, I hope, than I understood before, the motives, the ambitions and the principles which actuate this great nation. It has, therefore, been to me a lesson in the roots of friendship in those things which make the intercourse of nations profitable and serviceable for all the rest of mankind."

"Sometimes the work of the conference has seemed to go very slowly indeed. Sometimes it has seemed as if there were unnecessary obstacles to agreement; but as the weeks have lengthened I have seemed to see the profit that came out of that. Quick conclusions would not have produced that intimate knowledge of each other's mind which I think has come out of these daily conferences."

"We have been constantly in the presence of each other's minds and motives and characters, and the comradeships which are based upon that sort of knowledge are sure to be very much more intelligent not only, but to breed a much more intimate sympathy and comprehension than could otherwise be created."

"These six months have been six months of connection between the hearts of our people. And something more than friendship and intimate sympathy has come out of this intercourse."

"Friendship is a very good thing. Intimacy is a very enlightening thing. But friendship may end with sentiment. A new thing that has happened is that we have translated our common principles and our common purposes into a common plan. When we part we are not going to part with a finished work, but with a work one portion of which is finished and the other portion of which is only begun."

Plan of Co-Operation Begun.

"We have finished the formulation of the peace, but we have begun a plan of co-operation which I believe will broaden and strengthen as the years go by so that this grip of the hand that we have taken now will need to be relaxed. We have been and shall continue to be comrades. We shall continue to be co-workers in tasks which, because they are common, will weave out of our sentiments a common conception of duty and a common conception of the right of men of every race and of every time. If it be true that that has been accomplished, it is a very great thing."

"As I go away from these scenes I think I shall realize that I have been present at one of the most vital things that has happened in the history of nations. Nations have formed contracts with each other before, but they never have formed partnerships. They have associated themselves temporarily, but they have never before associated themselves permanently."

"The wrong that was done in the waging of this war was a great wrong, but it awakened the world to a great moral necessity of seeing that it was necessary that men should band themselves together in order that such a wrong should never be perpetrated again."

"Merely to beat a nation that was wrong once is not enough. There must follow the warning to all other nations that would do like things that they in turn will be vanquished and shamed if they attempt a dishonorable purpose."

Ocean Narrow in Future.

"You can see, therefore, sir, with what deep feelings those of us who must now for a little while turn away from France shall leave your shores; and though the ocean is broad it will seem very narrow in the future. It will be easier to understand each other than it ever was before, and with the confident intercourse of co-operation the

644-MILLION NAVAL BILL PASSED BY THE SENATE

The naval appropriation bill passed the Senate yesterday virtually as reported by the Senate committee, and now goes to conference. It carries approximately $644,000,000, an increase of more than $44,000,000 over the House total.

Excessive, La Follette Says.
There was no record vote and no debate on any of the larger items although Senators King, democrat, Utah, and La Follette, republican, Wisconsin, took occasion to declare that they believed the appropriation to be "excessive."

The largest increase made by the Senate over the House measure is the committee amendment making the appropriation for February 1, 1917, $35,000,000 instead of $15,000,000. Next in size is a $12,000,000 increase for pay, which covers the Senate's provision authorizing an increase of strength of 191,000 men from September 30 to the end of the fiscal year as opposed to the House plan to reduce the force to 170,000 after January 1, 1920.

One Important Amendment.
The only important amendment made on the floor was offered by Senator La Follette to give enlistments in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps made after February 1, 1917, war-time status. Under executive orders now in force and by the terms of the House bill this provision is as of April 7, 1917, the date of the war declaration. The Wisconsin senator's purpose, he said, was to make all men who rushed to volunteer in the Army or Navy when the war was certain, but before the actual declaration, eligible for discharge at the end of the war period.

understanding will be strengthened into action, and action will itself educate alike our purpose and our thought.

"So, sir, in saying good-by to France I'm only saying a sort of physical good-by, not a spiritual good-by. I shall retain in my heart always the warm feelings which the generous treatment of this great people has generated in my heart. And I wish in my turn, sir, to propose, as you have proposed, the continued and increasing friendship of the two nations, the safety and prosperity of France, the closer and closer communion of free peoples, and the strengthening of every influence which instructs the mind and the purpose of humanity."

WOODROW WILSON IN "POT HOOKS" ON PEACE TREATY

PARIS (Wednesday). June 26.—President Wilson's personal seal, which he has decided to use instead of the presidential seal in signing the peace treaty, was made of part of a gold nugget presented to the President four years ago by the state of California with which to make a ring for the President's wedding.

After the wedding ring was made, enough gold remained for a seal ring on which the President had "Woodrow Wilson" engraved in stenographic characters. As the stenographic signs are joined on the ring, they resemble Arabic lettering.

Would Nationalize French Rys.

PARIS, Thursday, June 26.—A bill providing for the nationalization of all the railroads in France was introduced in the chamber of deputies today by Albert Thomas, the socialist leader and former minister of munitions.
